246 Walliston

Stunning, large family sized home The first thing you notice when you arrive at 246 Whistlepipe drive is the immaculate presentation of this lovely home. The second thing once you step inside is how lovely and big it is. This kitchen was definitely built for entertaining judging by it's sheer size. This home was built as a display and you can see that because the colour scheme and finishing touches have been carefully considered. The house boasts 2 good size bedroom, both with built in robes and the master with it's own private ensuite. There's a separate study and large second bathroom plus a separate laundry which also houses a second toilet. The back garden is beautifully presented and you can easily imagine relaxing under the gabled patio in peaceful tranquility. The front veranda, carport and back patio is fully enclosed with patio blinds which can be rolled up to allow the sun in or rolled down for privacy and protection from the elements. This house really does have it all and is what I would call a family size home. Call for a viewing today.
