Relax On The Huge Deck

For those who want privacy for guests or have frequent visitors who may stay for extended periods of time, or sometimes if you need that little bit of extra help, this design may be for you.

Enjoy the comfort of an open plan living/dining area with a spacious kitchen overlooking a huge private undercover north facing deck, ideal for entertaining family and friends, or just enjoying your own company. On the fully tiled lower level there is also a bedroom and bathroom, this is repeated on the upper level which also has a separate sitting room, perfect for a sewing room, reading area or even a second tv room. There is also a utility room which can be utilized as another bedroom or a study.

There is a small, easily maintained, rear garden, perfect for a pet. The single garage is slightly longer than normal, so is ideal for a workbench and the garden shed offers more storage options.
