

2/8 13 Tea Tree Drive, Forster, NSW

Lakeside Village Site 2/8

This is a compact 2 bedroom home with tiled floors in the kitchen and carpet in the living room and bedrooms. It is air-conditioned and also has ceiling fans in the living area. There is a functional kitchen and the bathroom has a good sized shower recess and separate toilet and laundry. The house has large windows which give plenty of natural light and there is a deck at the front of the property with views over the lake and a roll down blind for extra weather protection. There is also a good sized backyard with a covered patio area and large carport with rear access plus a large storage shed.

This home is located within Lakeside Village which is set across more than 12 acres on the shores of Pipers Bay in Wallis Lake. The village is just an 8 minute drive into Forster. Facilities include a heated swimming pool, boat ramp, games room, movie room and picnic area with electric BBQs.
