River to North Brother Mountain. A third screened timber deck on the upper level provides a private space to revel in the bush outlook.

The large, functional kitchen caters to all culinary endeavours, leading to a free-flowing design that's both inviting and practical. Outdoors, a small yard beside large paperbarks and staghorns, a private seating area with a firepit, a workshop shed and extra storage space all enhance the living experience.

Vehicle storage is where the home completely sets itself apart, unparalleled for park living, with three lofty carports plus an additional parking bay ensuring plenty of room for cars, boats, caravan or whatever else you might seek to store.

This unique home is only a stroll from the river and the Park's boat ramp, inviting fishing, kayaking, boating - and great views. Ocean breezes and gentle surf sounds from nearby Dunbogan Beach add to the charm.

Located just a stone's throw from Laurieton CBD, convenience is at your doorstep, yet you remain in a peaceful leafy environment filled with birdlife. Embrace this rare opportunity for a retirement lifestyle balanced with independence, community, and nature.

Please Note: The Diamond Waters Caravan Park is restricted to residents aged over 49yrs and is also pet friendly. Site fees of $175 per week are payable.
